

CITY OF JOLIET ACTIVE THREAT & MENTAL WELLNESS 2024 CONFERENCE

The Active Threat & Mental Wellness Conference is dedicated to helping communities prepare integrated responses for active threat situations and their aftermath.

- PREVENT • Identifying and preventing threat situations before they happen
- DEFEND • Best practices for responding to active threat situations
- RECOVER • Victim impact and community recovery

“It’s not a matter of if it’s going to happen to you, it’s a matter of when it’s going to happen to you.”

Sheriff Michael Neal
Monroe County Sheriff’s Department

NOVEMBER 13-15, 2024

The Joliet Renaissance Center
214 N Ottawa St, Joliet, IL 60432

Hosted by:

JOLIET
911

Presenting Partners:

NEW TOPICS & NEW SPEAKERS

Registration Options:

$300 - 3 Days Attendance

$125 - 1 Day Attendance

- Breakfast and Lunch included.
- Continuing Education Credit available.

Registration closes Friday, November 8.

Learn more and register at
ActiveThreat.org

